

INFORMATION FOR DISTRIBUTORS

JUNE 2014

Ladies and gentlemen,

Let us introduce list of the June Eduard releases today. It is good to know, that the June list unusually long with more new releases in all our branches. Each of our branches is bringing something exciting, so we introduce couple of pivotal items once again in today's newsletter. One of them is Pz.Kpfw. VI Ausf. B Tiger II, the pilot item of the new Profipack sub-line of the 1/35th scale AFV series. We will widely employ the bulk plastic delivered by other manufactures. This Tiger II is based on Academy plastic, upgraded to Eduard Profipack standard with PE sheet included. Other 1/35th scale AFV items will follow, the next would be M4A1 Sherman (ex-Tasca) and Pz.35(t) (ex-Academy) scheduled to 2nd and 3rd quarter of 2014. We have two Limited Edition item ready for June release, the first one is Spitfire Mk.IX packed in the box named "The Longest day". This kit is dedicated to the 70th anniversary of the D-day, celebrated right in early June. The contents? Black and white stripped Spitfires, of course! With a 500lbs bomb like a bonus. The other one is 1/48th scale F-4B/N named Bicentennial Phantoms, with five markings painted to celebrate 200th anniversary of the Independence declaration in 1976. The Brassin line brings nine releases, with 88mm gun in 1/72nd scale for German U-bot type IX (Revel) among them. This is the first Brassin item designed for a ship kit. That's still not only innovation in Brassin line. There are two first 1/35th scale accessory kits, MG 34 German machine gun, and its American counterpart, Browning M2.

Concerning the photoetch, check the new SUPER FABRIC item, Remove Before Flight 1/72nd scale set. It is not fairly new, but it is interesting step to increase new ability to do realistic and easy applicable sets. I trust in great future of these Super Fabric set, because this is simple way how to increase value of the build-up models. See also three sets for Revell 1/32nd scale Spitfire Mk.II and Bf 109G-10, both these sets have a potential to be bestsellers. Also, note two sets of USN sailors and naval officers, both these sets complete the six already released sets for USS Arizona. Don't forget BIG EDs, at least USS Indianapolis in 1/350 and Gloster Javelin in 1/48th scales have good sales ability. See also the list of the mask, with unique 12 items together. Mask line shows very good sales result in past years, and we have an ambition to cover most released kits with our yellow masks. You are surely interesting, where all the Ed's Messerschmitts are. The first of them is already before the doors. Bf 109G-6, item No. 8268, will be available for you after Easter, in late week 17. We expect to dispatch first parcel with the 8268 kit on Monday, April 28th, but earlier date is also possible. Therefore it should be clever to send your re-stock orders right now, to give us chance to prepare shipments, to complete them with 8268s, and dispatch them as soon as possible. Please note there could be problem with quick restock in early May, because we will move or sales department to the new hall in second week of May (week 19th/20th), so please order sufficient amount of 8268 and also the Brassin accessories available for it if possible now. Please don't hesitate about the quality of the kit. You can expect a problem reading these wild discussions about faults of the kit on the internet discussion forums, but don't worry, the relevant problems are already fixed. We changed the back fuselage riveting, the wing bulges, all together we did some 20 small or bigger changes on the kit during the finishing stage of the development process. However, we can't fix everything what is commented, many of these faults are actually no faults, but just subjective point of vision and to let us lead by the Hyperventilators could bring us soon to total collapse. So or so, I suppose this one will be best done Bf 109G-6 forever, and simply a bestseller like all the kits before. Remember Spitfire!

Dear friend, we wish you nice Easter and great business with Eduard products in May!

Vladimir Sulc
